CASE GIVEN TO JURY

The case in which Heza Leslie is charged with unlawfully practicing medicine without a state license reached the jury at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and after being out an hour and a half without reaching a verdict, Probate Judge C. Mrs. F. N. Beebout died Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at her home in the Shilling block on Main street. Her demise was caused by a concussion of the brain and heart trouble. She had been ill three weeks. Mrs. Beebout was 37 years of age and had resided in Alliance about twelve years. She is survived by two children, Hazel, of Alliance, and Lucile of Oklahoma.

On Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock a fire was discovered in the barn on West Ohio avenue owned by Mrs. Eva Norris, of Pittsburgh. The loss is placed at from $1200 to $1500, and partially covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been caused by tramps.

A bad runaway of a team of horses attached to a farm wagon took place on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The outfit belonged to Lewis Glass, who lived in the vicinity of Home-worth, and the team took flight on South Liberty avenue and started at a furious gallop north, running until they reached the first alley south of Main street, when they turned west and ran to the public square, where they were stopped by several men.

While visiting at Canton some time ago Miss Scranton was a guest at one of the society's birthday parties, and as last Sunday was her birthday, she invited the members to help celebrate the occasion.

Owing to various other engagements only six of the members of the Hen society were able to accept the invitation. They were Misses Elsie Kremkau, Ida Bechtel, Blanche Wilhelm, Lou Stone, Grace Riley and Mrs. Lou Wilson. The evening passed pleasantly with games and music for entertainment. A two-course lunch was served. In a penny contest, Miss Bechtel was the winner, and in a peanut hunt the honors went to Miss Wilhelm. The guests presented to the hostess a fine china plate.

BANQUET

Given by Canton Outing Club Tuesday Night

PLEASANT AFFAIR

The Canton Outing club, which has become famous, not only for its entertainment of guests at their regular outings in Oxford, Mich., but for their social sessions during the winter, gave their Thanksgiving banquet Tuesday night. This banquet was given in honor of Peter Obringer, who has visited the club on two or three occasions while they were in camp and did other favors that the members highly appreciated. The banquet was served in the dining room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bernard, connected with the organization's meeting place and consisted of a fish fry and many other good things to eat. The affair was presided over by President Herman Raedel and a few hours of enjoyment was spent at the table. At one end of the table sat President Raedel, with the guest of honor, Mr. Obringer, at his left, while at the extreme end was seated Mayor Turnbull and Joseph Reiger, who enjoys the distinction of being the oldest man that ever visited the jolly campers. The others surrounding the table were Charles Berger, W. W. Fielding, Morris Schmeler, W. O. St. Clair, Elmer Harding, Crief of Police H. W. Smith, Fred S. Talbot, William Thom, Paul Sode, O. J. Fielding, Alois Seller and Emory Yoder, most of whom are members of the organization. The dinner was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard, who were assisted by a corps of able waitresses. After the cigars were passed those present indulged in personal reminiscences and many tales about the different camps were told, much to the enjoyment of the banqueters. Several of those who visited the camp during the past few seasons were unable to be present, owing to the fact that they had previous engagements or were out of the city at the time. This organization, which has camped at Oxford, Mich., for several seasons, is now making preparations for the coming outing. They have decided upon purchasing several new tents and replenishing other parts of their paraphernalia, making it the most complete camping outfit in the city. The membership of this organization is limited, but they always make preparations for visitors from the city and those who visit them are always anxious to be included in the club's visiting list. Meetings are held each month during the year for the transaction of business and social sessions.

TELEPHONE HEARING SET FOR FRIDAY AT TOLEDO

Toledo, O., Dec. 1.—The hearing of the case of the independent phone companies against the Bell Telephone company for violation of the anti-trust law will be heard in this city on Friday. A short time ago Judge Taylor of the federal court granted an injunction against the Bell companies to prevent their warfare against the independents. It prevents interference with independent companies under contract with the United States Telephone companies.

The independents claim that the Bell is violating the Sherman anti-trust law and also the laws of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

The charge is made that the Bell company has been circulating false reports regarding the condition of the independents. The suit charges that the Bell companies are trying to ruin the independent companies, and make a monopoly of the business.

The charge is made that the Bell company has induced a number of independent companies to violate their contracts with the United States companies.

In a number of places after the Bell company has bought out exchanges, it has burned them publicly in the main streets of the village or city where the plant was located.

The independent companies realize they are now making a fight for their very life and existence and hence the interest which is being taken in the law suit against the big octopus.

RICH OIL STRIKE

Youngstown, Dec. 1.—What is believed to be far the richest strike in the Alliance oil fields has been made by Youngstown men. The Duncan Oil company, backed by Youngstown capitalists including A. F. Schantz, the Kuntz brothers, the Stocker brothers and A. Lieberman, has refused the offer of a fortune from supposed representatives of the Standard Oil company, which is after the holdings of the Youngstown men.

Negotiations were pending for the sale of the lease on the oil land located four miles from Alliance. But last Wednesday another 125-barrel well was struck and the owners believe that they have located an exceedingly rich vein of petroleum and have declined to think of disposing of their lease for anything like the price offered. When seen Monday, Mr. Schantz, who is the proprietor of the Red Line livery stable, declined to talk for publication regarding the deal but it is understood that the price offered and refused is large enough to make a man of ordinary means gasp.

What Jack Tars Are Fed.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Some idea of the way in which Uncle Sam looks out for his jolly jack tars in the way of providing creature comforts for them may be obtained by glancing over the requisitions which are just at hand. They call, for instance, for immense supplies of the class of canned fruit and vegetables, canned fish, sirup, coffee, tea and the like. Contracts will soon be placed for 92,000 pounds of evaporated apples, 100,000 gallons of California white beans, 61,000 pounds of evaporated peaches, 230,000 pounds of Bartlett pears, 30,000 pounds of French prunes, 41,000 pounds of California muscatel raisins, 220,000 pounds of tinned salmon, 22,000 pounds of pure sugar sirup, 1,300,000 pounds of granulated sugar, 1,750,000 pounds of green coffee and 60,000 pounds of tea. The subsistence officers of the United States army have practically decided not to adopt a wheel-mounted bread baking oven for our army of the type represented by the so-called rolling oven purchased in England some time ago for test by our officers.

PROSECUTOR

Says He Can't Have Crimes Committed in the Jury Room to Satisfy Squeamish Jurors.

Columbus, O., Dec. 1.—Prosecuting Attorney Karl Webber caused a sensation in the criminal division of the common pleas court by making a special request of the court to discharge the present criminal jury. He claimed that the jury in the criminal court was made up of the "leavings" of the other court rooms, and pointed out that there have been five disagreements, costing the county about $3000, for which nothing was gained, thus imposing a burden on the taxpayers. "We cannot commit crimes in a jury room," said he, "to satisfy a jury. Many of the jurors seem unwilling to convict on circumstantial evidence, and would not find a man guilty unless they saw the crime committed. I do not charge corruption. The jury commission should be more careful in the selection of names."

The court refused to grant the request.
